About the Brand

Our brand dexmonds is denoted by a bold X, hatched with a butterfly. The butterfly mirrors itself, the way life often mirrors us and we also aspirationally mirror others. The X denotes the uncertainties of life; so no matter how well planned a life or game is, there are always unknown variables denoted by X. Therefore regardless of what life throws our way, we must forge ahead courageously, as life is lived in the Forward Direction.

Our brand is premised on the mantra of a.. collector's item/ limited collection. We would never repeat our designs. Every design is LIMITED, and we have two categories namely:

- 1).The Premium Limited Collection has: 30-200 pieces &
- 2).Then 201-500 pieces, called Limited collection.

Our collections are inspired by nature. The vastness of the universe, whether flora and fauna, ocean beds, mountains, hills & valleys, the sky, the minerals hidden underneath or the endless varieties give us a spectrum of boundry-less-ness.This is the Core of our Brand & our DNA.

Sometimes only 30 pieces per design are produced globally unlike those made by other brands.

We source our fabrics Globally. So they may not necessarily be cheap, because they are exclusive for the discerning few gentlemen & ladies of style.

Meet Dexmonds

I had my 1st degree in engineering from the prestigious University of Benin 1985 and a masters in global consumer mgt 2015 from University of Liverpool UK.

The fashion business was started by my maternal grandfather over 100yrs ago in Nigeria-Africa, which I inherited from my mum, now branded as dexmonds. I belong to the 3rd generation of family clothiers. My background and pedigree are woven into the products. We are a luxury group & dexmonds is one of them.

For the past 36 years, I have built the most iconic brand in the water feature industry in West Africa as seen at www.dexdee.com. The fluidity of water laced with my pedigree in the fashion industry inspired me to build my collections. My vision in the fashion industry is to disrupt those established myths as seen in every day fashion.

Fashion has become generic and profit driven that most designs are either bland or lack creativity. quality. This has made a lot of fashion brands to be only profit driven.

Also majority of the world buys brands that are dogmatic, brands that presently live on their past Glory. This creates a great opportunity for us at dexmonds. Research has shown that Africans are greatest influencers of fashion. So my proximity to my African roots, laced with my over 100Yrs pedigree give me a greater competitive advantage than any other designer out there.

Our Mission Statement

Service before profit

Our Vision

To build a truly global brand based on quality, efficiency and integrity

Why are we different?

We have never been driven by the mass market concept. we travel the ends of the earth to source for some of the best materials sewn together by some of the best craftsmen whose pedigree spans several centuries. Therefore each product you hold or wear is a reflection of those journeys and concepts.

Welcome to our world
